Patriotic Pork Chops

Keep alive that cherry tree tradition and celebrate George Washington's birthday with flavorful broiled pork chops topped with brandied cherry sauce. Place chops, cut 1 to 1¼ inches thick, on rack in broiler pan so tops of chops are about 5 inches from heat; broil 25 to 40 minutes, until well done, turning occasionally. Season with salt and pepper and serve with a cherry sauce made by heating cherry pie filling with a little brandy.

Let Our Hotel Stand

By Harry Ferguson
Church Street, Appomattox, Va.

We still have our Hotel,
How long it will stand
No one can tell.
They are still debating
As to what to do.
I say keep our Hotel!
Make plans for something new!

A parking lot is really no good.
Let the Hotel stand as it should!

I do not know who dreamed this big change,
But please take a second look,
then rearrange!
The Appomattox Hotel has stood
For quite a few years,
To tear it down now
Would cause heartaches and tears.

So if our town officials,
Want to do something real nice,
Give us a grocery and drug store,
Where we can make a purchase,
At a lower price!
That way they could improve
Our Little Town,
And forget about tearing
Our only Hotel down.

I am sure the town officials
Will not listen to me or you.
A new parking lot
Would serve only a few.

Our Hotel stands very tall,
This is a memorial,
It was built for one and all.

The citizens' tax money,
Is paying this bill,
Then why is it,
The town officials can act at will?

Now it is a shame
For the U. S. Government
To bear all the blame,
For a grant the government gave the town.
Because they wanted to tear the Hotel down,
I am sure the government would pay
Their part of the bill.
To restore our hotel, instead of,
A parking lot to build.
